NOTES TO KNOW

The 43rd season of Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball tipped off Tuesday with nine teams opening their 2018-19 slate. The A-10 has won seven out of 11 games to open the season, including victories by defending champion Davidson (picked third in the preseason poll), defending regular season champion Rhode Island (picked fifth), and preseason favorite Saint Louis. Dayton, Fordham, Massachusetts and VCU also won their openers.

Of the three teams that didn't play Tuesday, Richmond and Saint Joseph's open Friday night, while Duquesne waits until Saturday to tip-off its season. Looking forward, conference play opens on Thursday, Jan. 3 and the regular season wraps up Saturday, March 9.

Saint Louis was picked by the A-10 coaches and media to win the league race this year. But unlike last year when Rhode Island was a near unanimous selection, indications that this year is harder to predict are evident. In addition to Saint Louis, three other teams (Saint Joseph's, Davidson, George Mason) received first-place votes. SLU and Davidson both won their season openers.

Speaking of polls, Davidson got love in the preseason AP Poll. The Wildcats garnered a Top 25 vote, an early indication of what national media may think about Bob McKillop's team and this year's A-10 field.

Before the season started, Kellan Grady found himself on watch lists for prestigious awards. He was named to the 2019 Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Watch List, as announced by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, and the 2019 Citizen Naismith Trophy Watch List, as announced by the Atlanta Tipoff Club.

The Atlantic 10 has some iconic facilities, from the historic Rose Hill Gymnasium to the raucous Reilly Center. Two of those arenas with long histories are getting significant improvements. University of Dayton Arena, an NCAA Tournament staple, just completed phase two of a three-stage $72 million transformation, while Duquesne is undertaking a comprehensive renovation of the A.J. Palumbo Center the modernized and re-imagined facility will be named UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse in honor of NBA trailblazer Chuck Cooper.

A-10 TEAMS IN THE POSTSEASON

The 14 member institutions of the Atlantic 10 all have successful winning traditions on a national stage. Through their history, they have combined for 342 postseason appearances and the league and its members have made nearly 200 trips to the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. Those appearances have resulted in a national champion, multiple national runners up and numerous Final Four, Elite Eight and Sweet 16 appearances.

Since the 2007-08 season, the Atlantic 10 has sent 75 teams to the postseason, including 39 appearances in the NCAA Tournament by A-10 teams in that 11-year timeframe, 28 of which have come via at-large bids. The Atlantic 10 has sent a team to the Sweet 16 in seven of the last 11 years and each of the 14 the current members have made the postseason during that span. The conference also has won the NIT twice during that time frame, and played in the semifinals or finals in New York two other times.

Last season, for the 11th year in a row, the A-10 earned at least three bids into the NCAA Tournament, marking the 32nd time in the league's 42-year history that the conference received multiple NCAA bids. The A-10 also received multiple at-large bids for the 11th year in a row and 24th time overall.
